

SEND THE GIFT OF SUSANSNAPS... HAPPINESS GUARANTEED!

Specialty Gingersnap Cookies? Well, it's a story!

Susansnaps is a labor of love developed after my mom, Laura, watched my dad and me (I'm named for my Aunt Susan, who died from cancer at 28) undergo chemo within the same year. Ginger is a natural stomach soother and cookies always bring smiles, so my mom developed the ultimate gingersnap recipe. As the cookies were becoming popular, my mom coined them "Susansnaps" in memory of her late sister Sue and in honor of me. While she perfected her recipe, I worked on logos and packaging. And, as they say, the rest is history! Today, my mom and I work side by side running Susansnaps where we bake the most heavenly spice filled cookies. Our gourmet snaps are scrumptious, they're packaged in a variety of fun & fancy styles perfect for gifting. – Susan
